GENERO'S STYLE:

Genero's music has been described as altern-acoustic, soulful and cinematic, evoked by their colourful instrumentation, intimate vocals and world influences.

Continuing in the tradition of female singer-songwriter-instrumentalists like Sarah McLaughlan, Tori Amos, Dido, Joni Mitchell, and speaking out about everything from unrequited love to the burning environment, Genero's first CD "Overture" showcases intense poetic songwriting with skilled piano and guitar tracks, ambient percussions, warm string arrangements and stunning vocal harmonies.

From the edgy acoustic drive of "Charcoal World", to the Latin grooves of "Break" and "Everybody's Talking" and the atmospheric, Mediterranean influences on "Lately I", the textures and colours of Genero take on a life of their own, perhaps a true reflection of the meaning of the band's name "To Create".

Genero's collaboration for a peace event in 2005 marked the duo's birth, and garnered loads of positive feedback from press & event organizers: "WOW and boy do I mean WOW! I don't think any of us imagined that we were going to be honoured with such an unbelievable, beautiful STUNNING performance... truly an outstanding duo."
